Marko Zelic, Certified Personal Trainer

Marko has a Bachelor of Applied Science Degree in Physical Education with an emphasis in Personal Training & Strength Conditioning. He is also a Certified Personal Trainer through the National Council of Strength & Fitness. Marko is highly motivating with a genuine desire to help people of all ages meet their personal health & fitness goals. He is a gifted athlete who was recruited by several colleges & given a full scholarship to play collegiate basketball. This energetic Trainer has significant experience working with athletes of all ages & levels and enjoys working with all people. Marko has incredible enthusiasm, provides tremendous encouragement, and has a true passion for training, motivating & inspiring his clients to reach their full potential.

Chad Leland, Certified Personal Trainer

I have a Bachelor of Applied Science Degree in Exercise Science and Health Promotion and was certified as a Personal Trainer through National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). I have worked in the fitness industry for over 20 years teaching Boot Camp, Ski Conditioning, Personal Training, Youth Sports Conditioning as well as football, baseball and soccer camps for various schools. I am currently a Strength and Conditioning coach for a local high school. My motivational motto is “getting you on the right path to achieve your full potential - reach those goals baby!”

Sharon Mitchell, Certified Personal Trainer & Orthopedic Exercise Specialist

I have been an ACE Certified Personal Trainer since 1998, and a certified Himalayan Institute yoga teacher since 2000. With an eye toward a more therapeutic form of yoga, following additional teacher training in India, I went back to college to become a licensed Physical Therapist Assistant. My training and experience have equipped me with evidence-based formulas that can help individuals reduce postural imbalances, non-functional movement patterns, and lifestyle habits to promote a more balanced and joyful lifestyle. No two bodies and personalities are the same, and therefore each client's training program is individually customized. Having worked with many clients in the Pittsburgh area for several years prior to moving back to Colorado this past winter, I look forward to empowering people interested in a more balanced lifestyle here.

Rachel Bailey, Certified Personal Trainer

Rachel is our newest Certified Personal Trainer. She has an unwavering dedication to guiding each of her clients to living a Lean and Fit lifestyle. She holds a Personal Training Certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and is in pursuit of her Women's Fitness Specialization (WFS) to further enhance her knowledge and more importantly serve her clientele. With a functional approach to training, she best serves those who are looking to build confidence, add lean muscle, shed unwanted body-fat and create healthy habits. Rachel enjoys snowboarding, reading, fitness and spending time with her husband, Keith and yellow lab, Kallie. Whether you're looking for a guide to start your fitness journey or need a next level push don't hesitate to book a SUCCESS session with Rachel to get you on the right track!

Nancy O'Brien, Certified Personal Trainer

In addition to being a Certified Personal Trainer, I have been a fitness instructor for over 10 years teaching a variety of class formats. Fitness is my passion and my goal is to assist my clients achieve a balance of fitness, health and wellness in their lives. I love to share my knowledge, passion, and experience with others by motivating them and making training a fun & rewarding experience. I believe that with determination anyone can achieve their goals. I also love to travel, hike, read and participate in many outdoor activities.

JoEllen Walden, Certified Personal Trainer & Certified Nutrition Coach

As an active mother of two, a wife, a fitness guru, an accomplished road cyclist; I have a variety of experience under my belt. I am certified as an AFAA Group Fitness Instructor and NAFC Nutrition Coach and Personal Trainer. I have been teaching at Trails for 10+ years. My interest in fitness began with triathlons and has transitioned into road and cross cycling competitions through BRAC. I am passionate about eating real, whole foods and not buying into the latest “fads” and “diets” to improve physique and performance. No more dieting for this gal! I especially enjoy working with families, women focused on getting back into shape pre and post-partum, those in midlife with a renewed interest in healthy living, and of course, all cyclists. I encourage good nutrition and making movement a part of each day. I have hit my own triumphs and hurdles in these personal endeavors and my passion is to help others through their trials.

Calisse Weidner, Certified Personal Trainer

I have been an ACE certified Group Fitness Instructor for 20 years and have taught many types of classes such as Step, Muscle, Kickboxing, Aqua Aerobics and SilverSneakers. I became a certified Personal Trainer in 2006 and love doing both group and individual training. My exercise philosophy is to get people excited about moving their bodies through proper instruction mixed with compassion and humor, and to help them find their niche whether it's belly-dancing, gardening, snowshoeing or mountain climbing! I will ensure all areas of fitness are incorporated by working at your pace. I strongly believe in the psychological benefits that come from sweating and feeling your muscles working, and I hope to help others gain such benefits and feel good in their own skin.

Brook Skidmore, MS, Certified Personal Trainer

Brook has a Masters' Degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Sport Psychology, along with an Exercise Science and Sport Studies. She has been personal training for over ten years, and has been teaching group exercise classes for about seven years. She has helped a wide variety of clientele reach their goals, including a wide variety of ages (from youth to the elderly), and skill levels (from recreational individuals to competitive athletes). She believes sport and exercise should be enjoyable and fulfilling, and that each client deserves a workout plan tailored specifically to his/her unique needs and goals. Brook has completed one marathon, several half marathons, and three Ragnar races, and she also enjoys swimming, cycling, hiking, weight lifting, golf, and racquetball.

Ernie Carr, Certified Personal Trainer

I have special knowledge about weight loss and finding motivation to improve personal health & fitness. In 1996 I lost my leg, below the knee, in a motorcycle accident and subsequently ballooned from 175 to 285 pounds. Feelings of despair and my doctor's warning of permanent health risks made me decide to change my life. I lost 100 pounds and 15 years later I am in the best physical condition of my life. My own journey led me to pursue my passion for teaching and inspiring others to achieve their goals. I am a Certified Personal Trainer (NSCA), kettlebell instructor (IKFF certified), AFAA Certified Group Fitness Instructor, youth coach and Silver Sneaker Certified. I continually educate myself in techniques for all physical abilities and establish strong working relationships with my clients. I enjoy training people who are inspired to work hard and have fun. I have also worked with elite-level athletes to improve sport-specific strength and conditioning. I take pride in knowing - no matter my client's age - that my personalized plans, hands-on approach and ongoing encouragement give each client the confidence to improve their lifestyle with lifelong results.
